Kurdistan Support Hunger Strike of the Arrested activists in

Two human right activists who were arrested in the recent unrests in Kurdistan, named Jalal Qawami and Saeed Saedee are in hunger strike for more than a week now. Dr. Roya Toloee and Madeh Ahmadi who were also arrested recently are still in prison and under intense physical and psychological pressure.

Dozens of the arrested people are in Sepah-e Pasharan or Special Forces' jails and being tortured routinely. Even the whereabouts of some of them are not known.

The foreign ministry of Iran recently issued a bulletin where it accused US of being the meddler in the recent popular protests in Kurdistan. This claim, along with the brutal treatment of the arrested people, shows that the regime has decided to accuse people of Kurdistan and prisoners of being enticed by foreign elements and this way isolate the democracy and freedom movement in Kurdistan.

We ask all freedom loving people and Kurds in particular to do whatever that they can to support the jailed Kurds and especially those who in hunger strike.
