

The announcement of secretariat of Mahabad's atrocity

On Saturday July 9th, 2005 Iranian regime's troop sprayed bullets toward a number of youth gathered in a poor neighborhood of the city. It resulted in the death of person named Kamal Afsareen, nicknamed Shwana, and injuring of two others. The regime's troop took the body of the dead with them. The next morning the mutilated body of Kamal was returned to his family. This brutal action of the regime angers the poor neighborhood and thousands of them pour in the streets to participate in the burial of the victim. The participants expressed their anger by shouting anti regime slogans and shooting of bullets on the air.

Right now a number of neighborhoods including Peshttap, Baghi Shaygan, and Istiglal are surrounded by the troops and the residents are confrontational mode the troop. As of now the injured are still in the hospital and are in critical condition. As of Monday afternoon all the people of the city have joined these neighborhoods to express their anger and frustration with the regime's repeated atrocities against the innocent people of the city. The city is under lockdown and most communication with the outside are disconnected or strictly controlled.

We condemn this criminal act and demand the perpetrators brought to justice. We also express our condolences to the family of the victim and the people of Mahabad and wish a speedy recovery for the injured people.
