

Number 15 Bulletin of Komala Party:

Widespread popular protests are continuing all over Kurdistan

Mahabad: Last night in several neighborhoods in the city protests popped up and the regime forces including Special Forces shot bullets on the air to disperse the protestors. In protest to this new wave of repression today the city's shops and bazaars are closed. The reports received from the city indicate that the resilient people in the city are continuing their demands to be met by the regime.

Javanroo: The latest news from that city, which belongs to Kermashan province, is that in order to repress the protests and demonstrations in solidarity with people of Saqez, Shnow, and Mahabad, the regime forces have arrested at least 50 people and martial law has been announced for the city.

In all Kurdistan: The latest news also indicates that the regime's armed forces have taken over all of the city corners in Kurdistan. Gathering of more than two people have been prohibited and the regime is not releasing the arrested despite widespread demands. People of Kurdistan have kept their unity and continue their protests until their demands are met. Solidarity with families who have lost ones in the resent wave of repression is very high in all Kurdistan.

Abroad: Komala organization reports that today a big demonstration was held in front of Iran's embassy in Canberra in protest to the recent atrocities and waves of arrests in Kurdistan. Hundreds of asylums and immigrants chanted slogans of condemnation in Kurdish, English, and Persian. They also express their solidarity with people of Kurdistan in their demands. The detailed report of this protest is coming soon.
